

DIAMONDS

An Immense Variety of Loose Stones and Mountings for Same.

Wholesale and Retail
Jeweler, 56 Monroe St.

F. W. WURZBURG

Wholesale and Retail
Jeweler, 56 Monroe St.

of the return of Miss Church, Mrs. F. W. Wurzburg's orchestra gave the right kind of music for the happy crowd to dance by.

Like the Scotch.
The young people of Park church held a Scotch social in the church parlors last Wednesday night. The program was composed entirely of Scottish subjects. The society will complete its imaginary trip around the world at its next monthly social, when it will wind up with a grand banquet, which will receive contributions from recipes of all the nations they have visited on their recent excursions.

Y. M. C. A.
The outlook for a Young Woman's Christian association in Grand Rapids is assuming quite a favorable aspect. The committee in charge of the enterprise held a meeting last Wednesday and will hold another next Wednesday. Mrs. W. Virginia Adams, who was delegate to Toledo to the national convention, thinks Grand Rapids is not quite holding her own upon this point in comparison to other cities.

Ida Van Cortlandt.
Ida Van Cortlandt, who is an honorary member, has recently sent to the company an engraved picture of herself, which adorns the parlor of the army.

The social and Schubert's fully satisfied the great expectation of all their friends and admirers, and also of the general public. The music, the drills, the marching and costumes were altogether lovely. The audiences were good and exceedingly appreciative.

The Spiritual association gave a calico dance in the Lincoln club rooms last Thursday night. The young women were attractive in their print gowns, which became them quite as well as the calico neckties off the same piece did their partners.

Oscar Allen has made up a world's fair party and has chartered the little lake vessel Bon Voyage. The party will visit the fair for one week, leaving on September 25. While there the Bon Voyage will be their home.

The Press club has authorized its president to invite the foreign news paper correspondents at the world's fair to come to Grand Rapids some time during the summer, and greet a right royal welcome.

A meeting of the Free Kindergarten Circle of King's Daughters, was held on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. C. Fitts, on Washington street.

The German Literary club held a pleasant session on last Monday evening at the home of Miss Harrington, No. 46 Charles street.

The Ladies' union of the Ames M. E. church held a social on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Bell on South Lonia street.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Jennie Dykema of the Lake street Holland school to Albert J. Zuiderveld.

Coming Events.
On Tuesday night the Wealthy Avenue Baptist church will give an "And So Forth" social in the church parlors. Much speculation is current regarding the nature of the entertainment, which has not yet been revealed. It is in charge of some of the male members and of course they can keep the secret, and no one disputes the curiosity of the women regarding the denouement.

The last meeting for the season of the Columbian lecture of Unity club will meet one week from tomorrow night at the home of Mrs. Walter Towne on Washington street. Quite a unique program is being prepared, as one of the young women of the club has accepted the challenge to go in costume and tell fortunes in a Polish manner. Other pleasing features will be introduced.

The announcement is out for the marriage on Tuesday, May 23, of Miss Amy B. Cooper to Charles William Wurzburg. The ceremonies will be at the home of the bride's parents in Syracuse, New York. Miss Cooper spent the winter in Grand Rapids and made many friends among musicians and others. Mr. Wurzburg is a member of the Schubert club.

The announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Sadie Littlefield of No. 171 Ransom street to Louis Cornelius of Chicago, formerly of this city. The wedding will take place June 7.

The wedding of Miss Annie Allen and Arnold Greenbaum will take place on Thursday, May 25. The bride and groom both live on Clinton street.

A party will be given on Friday night by Custer Woman's Relief corps at the residence of Mrs. Bronson, No. 85 McCord street.

Columbus tent, K. O. T. M., will give a party in its hall next Monday night. There will also be a musical program.

The Select Social club will give a grand ball on Tuesday evening, May 23, at North park pavilion.

The local lodges of Maecabees are preparing for a grand banquet, to be given about the first of June.

Hope and There.
Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Turner, whose home is in Grand Rapids, will be home on the 15th. They have been abroad in Paris for the last two or three years, and their friends are anxiously awaiting their return. Mr. Turner has had two pictures accepted by the French salon.

Don B. Austin of Philadelphia spent two days of the week with his father, mother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Austin and Mrs. Nellie Austin, at their home at No. 185 Barclay street. He returned to Philadelphia on Wednesday.

I and M. H. Frankford of New York have returned to that metropolis after a brief visit to the city. M. H. Frankford is connected with the New York Associated Press.

Miss Fred C. Derendorf and daughter, Miss Ada, are visiting Mrs. L. M. Whitfield. Mrs. Derendorf will soon go to join her husband in Los Angeles, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Salzman and son, from Flagstaff, Arizona, who spent a few days of the past week in town, are now taking in the world's fair in Chicago.

The friends of Dr. Alicia F. Jeffrey, formerly of St. Mark's hospital, will be glad to hear that her health is much improved. She is now in Denver.

Misses James G. MacIver, Charles R. Sligh and John Widdicombe left Thursday night for Chicago to finally arrange for the furniture exhibit.

Miss Helen M. Ramsdell of No. 511 East Fulton street has returned from Stanswood, where she went to attend the wedding of a friend.

Miss Maude Childs of No. 391 East Bridge street is entertaining for the summer her sister and two little children from Denver.

Mrs. F. Davis and daughter, who have for a few weeks been visiting in town, have returned to their home in Nebraska.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Foster and daughter and the Misses Kittie and Maude Foster visited a day or two in town.

Mr. and Mrs. James Connolly of Duluth are visiting their brother and sister, Flora and Austin Connolly, at the Warwick.

Miss Belle Hanson, who was in the city to attend the Levitt Frankford

wedding, has gone to her home in Greenville.

Mr. and Mrs. Rickman, formerly of No. 304 East Bridge street, have moved to their new home on Madison avenue.

Edwin Hancock, who visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hunter of Muskegon street last week, has returned to his home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Mead of Middleville, whose home was formerly in Grand Rapids, left for Oregon last Monday.

The Hon. and Mrs. H. H. Noble visited early in the week with Judge and Mrs. Hatch and Dr. and Mrs. Peterson.

Frank Austin, of the firm of Buckley A. Austin of Mendon, made a short visit to his friends here last Tuesday.

The Misses Anna and Maude Cheyne have gone to their home in Big Rapids after a pleasant stay in town.

Mrs. W. R. Shelby and daughter, who have been visiting in New York city, have returned to their home.

Samuel Weinstein of Philadelphia, after a few days' visit in Grand Rapids, has returned to the Quaker city.

The Rev. John Snyder of St. Louis is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Udell of No. 222 South Union street.

Mrs. L. D. Crossman has returned from a few days' visit to her brother, C. W. Crossman, of Chautauque.

Adolph Leitelt, who has been spending the winter in Florida, has returned much improved in health.

Mrs. M. LaRue returned to Jackson last Friday after a visit of ten days with Grand Rapids friends.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. M. S. Crosby left for a visit to friends in Rochester, New York.

Mrs. Louis Schmid of Ottawa street will visit friends in Grand Haven until the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sumner M. Welles and son left on Wednesday to visit a month in New York state.

C. F. Brown, superintendent of public schools in Traverse City, was in town a day or two.

Mrs. J. H. McDonald and daughter of Second street, visited friends in Jackson for a few days.

Dr. C. H. Baker of Bay City stopped for a few hours in town while on his way to Muskegon.

Miss Alice Brown of Barclay street has returned from Texas, where she has passed the winter.

Mrs. Edward W. Tinkham went to Chicago on Tuesday to visit friends and the world's fair.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Raymond and daughter Alice will spend the summer at Macatawa Park.

Miss Lena Cooper of Lansing is visiting her cousin, Miss Nellie Cooper, of Thomas street.

The Hon. George Parsons of Water-viet was in town Thursday on his way to Owosso.

Dr. Henneage Gibbs of Ann Arbor stopped in the city while on his way to Muskegon.

Mrs. W. H. Ball of Buffalo is at the Warwick, visiting her mother, Mrs. de Kraft.

Col. W. R. Shafter of the United States infantry visited the city last week.

Colon P. Lillie, who lives in Coopers-ville was in town for a day or two last week.

Signmund Tyroler of St. Louis has gone home after a few days' stay in town.

Mrs. J. M. Dudley returned from a few weeks' visit to Chicago and the west.

Mrs. E. E. Park of McConnell street went to Muskegon as a W. C. T. U. delegate.

Mrs. John D. Muir will visit her parents in Ann Arbor for another week.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Young have returned to Grand Rapids for the summer.

Mrs. H. D. Irish of the New Livingstone is entertaining Mrs. R. Burhans of Lonia.

E. G. Johnson of Luther and his daughter spent a few days in the city.

Mrs. W. H. Riechy and son of Belding visited Grand Rapids on Thursday.

Miss Lizzie C. Melis is with friends in Chicago, attending the exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Gay are attending the exposition in Chicago.

S. W. Blodgett of Coldwater spent a couple of days in town last week.

Paul P. Davis intends going to California in June to stay a few weeks.

Miss Lizzie Smith of East Fulton street is visiting in Caspott.

Arthur M. Morse of New York visited Grand Rapids on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Bonney of Lisbon were in the city on Thursday.

Mr. A. Sherman of Plainwell was visiting in town a day or two.

D. C. Oakes of Coopersville was in Grand Rapids last Thursday.

Judge J. Byron Jackson of Reed City was in the city on Thursday.

John R. Wood of Detroit was in town during a part of the week.

Miss Alfred Wolcott has gone to Ohio for a visit to old friends.

Dr. L. J. Elliott of Bay City visited the city on Thursday.

W. C. Winchester is away from the city for a few days.

Mrs. E. E. Park attended the W. C. T. U. in Muskegon.

C. C. Harley of Terrace avenue has gone to California.

Mrs. W. L. Fitzgibbons went to Saranac yesterday.

Mrs. N. K. Mills of Otsego was in town Tuesday.

Mrs. George Quimby has gone to Philadelphia.

Roland Lewis is in New York on a business trip.

Kanawha, Griffin of St. Louis is visiting E. L. LaRue.

Dr. C. E. Koon is at home after a visit to Hillsdale.

Mrs. W. B. Weston is visiting the world's fair.

Dr. James Gallup is in Owosso for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Adams are at Mt. Clemens.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hall, Mrs. W. P.

Hetherington and Mrs. W. S. Jackson, all of Belding, visited the city last Tuesday.

Mrs. M. J. Smiley is again in Chicago.

In the City.
Brenton C. Cutler, assistant secretary of the Young Men's Christian association, is attending the national convention at Indianapolis. Fred S. Russell is also in attendance at the convention, and went in company with Mr. Cutler.

Mrs. Gil R. Osmun and sons Philip and Russell have arrived in the city. Mr. Osmun will engage a residence and make his permanent home here.

Mrs. Lotta Bailey Ewing of Lansing is spending a week with her parents at their home on Wealthy avenue.

Chet Shepard of Philadelphia is visiting his mother, Mrs. Helen Shepard of No. 25 South Lafayette street.

Mrs. F. Bosch of No. 475 Jefferson avenue is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Christ of Chicago.

Mrs. W. H. Ball, daughter and maid of Buffalo, are the guests of Mrs. J. S. deKrafft at The Warwick.

Miss Jesse Sisson, who has been entertained by Miss Towne of Lansing, returned home last evening.

Mrs. George P. McMahon of No. 420 South Union street is visiting Mrs. J. Allen of Ludington.

Ernest Young and Jay Ross of Montrose, California, are visiting old friends in Grand Rapids.

Walter McBrien has returned from a six weeks' western trip, and is quartered at The Warwick.

Mrs. General Custer is visiting her cousin, Miss Richmond, of The Warwick.

Frank Hine went to Lowell last Thursday to visit his father, M. N. Hine.

Miss Amelia Morhard has returned home after a pleasant visit in Dor.

Mrs. F. L. Danforth is entertaining Mrs. Mary Hutchings of Rockford.

C. O. Hawley has gone to Santa Fe to remain for several months.

Mrs. Mary Hutchings of Rockford is visiting in town.

Personals.
William Widdicombe returned from Detroit to his home last Friday evening, the happy owner of a splendid solid silver tea set, as a trophy of the good will and esteem of the Michigan Wholesale Grocers' association. The set is one of the finest in the state.

The Rev. J. E. Roberts, pastor of a large unitarian church in Kansas City, Missouri, will soon be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Clay of No. 89 South Lafayette street. Mr. Roberts will be in attendance this week at the unitarian congress in Chicago.

Mrs. Lee Bowman Adams left for Chicago yesterday to attend the world's congress of representative women. She will remain during the entire session, and while there will be entertained by Dr. L. Wilcox of Irving Park.

Dr. Groner attended the medical convention at Muskegon and read a paper on the "Surgeon as an Expert Witness." Mrs. C. H. Johnson, D. M. Greene, Reuben Peterson and Dr. Wood also prepared papers.

Mrs. Martha Strickland, sister in law of ex-Superintendent Eastman, gave an address in Chicago last week before the world's congress of representative women on "Woman's Influence in Civil Law."

W. W. Chalmers went to Lansing on Thursday to attend the convention of superintendents of city schools in Michigan. He visited Olcott college on Friday and returned to the city yesterday.

Mrs. J. C. Ford of Grand Rapids presented a paper before the white ribbon convention in Muskegon. Her address was on "Work Among the Colored People," and was well received.

Mrs. Emily B. Ketchum went to Chicago yesterday to attend the women's congress. Mrs. Ketchum will give an address before the convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance union.

Miss Margaret Parsons, Mrs. Eliza Beth Englefield and Master Philip Englefield of No. 22 South Prospect street, left on Friday for Chicago, to attend the exposition.

Mrs. L. M. Boise of Grand Rapids gave an address on Wednesday before the state convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance union.

Miss Emma Field, secretary of the Associated Bureau of Charities, is located for the present in T. D. Gilbert's office in the Lynday block.

Miss Lena Belle Bridgman has been invited to assist in an entertainment to be given in Ludington on May 17 by the Ladies' Literary society.

Dr. Frances S. Hillyer gave a paper last Thursday—"Alcohol and Opium: Their Relation to the Disease," before the Central W. C. T. U.

Dr. Frances E. Rutherford attended the state convention of medical at Muskegon and gave one of the best papers of the convention.

Mrs. J. W. Tucker of No. 31 South Union street, was called last week to Windsor, Ohio, to attend the funeral of her father.

Mrs. James G. Clowes and daughter Maude of No. 321 Lyon street, gave an address before the temperance convention on "Physical Culture."

Charles W. Jones is recovering from his recent serious attack of pneumonia. Miss Quimby left for Kalamazoo last night to visit Miss Burnham.

J. C. Fitzgibbons is contemplating after a serious illness.

A large assortment of children's lace caps for 25, 35, 50 and 75 cents at Adams & Clark, 100 Monroe street.

See the great Geller, the aerial wonder, at Smith's opera house Sunday night.

Out of the Old.
Last Tuesday evening a jovial crowd of the Press club and a few guests held a farewell ghost dance in the club rooms on Lonia street. Mrs. Elta S. Wilson was the originator of the unique and impromptu program. The affair was altogether ghostly, but did not in the least frighten the press members, who are proverbially good for most any game at night. The club appreciates the excellent music given by home artists and the entertainments of visiting dramatic talent. The refreshments were not scorned by any means. After settling in the new quarters on Ottawa street a house warming will be held.

Mrs. Stevens' Musicals.
A fine musicals was given last Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. R. H. Stevens, No. 1230 South Division street, for the benefit of the Benjamin Women's Temperance union. Mr. and Mrs. O. Pearson were in their best voices, and the quartet, composed of Mesdames Shedd, Gray, Stevens and Patton, sang "Old Folks at Home." Mrs. Seymour's playing spoke of her study and skill, and Mr. Ryan's violin selections were much appreciated. Thanks were given Mr. and Mrs. Stevens for granting the entrance to their home, and for the success of the musicals.

May Party.
Miss Dawn Hunter of No. 18 Muskegon street entertained on Thursday night at her home a party of young people. Among those present were Edith Davis, Ollie Shannon, May Cosman, Lena Dillingbeck, Henry Davy, Thomas Croves, E. S. Brock and Walter Haines. The young people came out in true May party style, Miss Dawn not having forgotten any of the accessories that were requisite to the success of the scheme. Besides the other entertainment there were games and cards. Refreshments were served.

Kendall Home May Party.
On Wednesday night at the Kendall home the junior class of St. Mark's training school gave a May party surprise in honor of the graduates and senior class. The affair had been so happily arranged that the surprise was a success.

The evening was spent in merry games, songs and instrumental music and dancing. May fashions were worn in profusion and scattered through the beautiful home. Miss Robert, superintendent of the training school, presided in the pretty making.

Happy and Social.
On last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. Margaret Dobson of No. 77 West Bridge street, were entertained a party of a close-knit group of friends of the hostess. The afternoon was enjoyed much after the old-fashioned style of hospitality. The women brought their work, talked over the good old times and played cards and whist. Home-made refreshments were served, and when the company separated it was with the hope of attending these informal gatherings.

Juvenile May Outing.
Mrs. L. M. Greenwood of Broadway took a party of forty young girls and boys to a ball park for an outing in the woods yesterday. The children, in the company of the Forest temple, Juvenile Templars. Their mothers and older sisters had provided lunches, which they gathered up during the outing, played all sorts of outdoor games and passed on such other and rare home a happy crowd of temporary boys and girls.

May Dancing.
On Wednesday night Mrs. Claude Belmont of Riverside gave a May dance party to a large number of her friends. Careful hostess, were arranged with the assistance of her guests provided every requirement. Many joined in the pleasures of the dance and others indulged in music. Refreshments were graciously served and the evening was one to be largely remembered.

Entertaining Mothers.
On Tuesday night the Valley City women of No. 1 of the United American Mechanics gave a banquet at the Briggs Street house. Twenty-five invited guests from out of the city, John R. Connors, acted as hostmaster. Dr. W. Nelson Sherman, of W. Hough of Detroit and Dr. W. F. Houghton responded to the hosts. Wurzburg's orchestra gave the right kind of music for the happy crowd to dance by.

Like the Scotch.
The young people of Park church held a Scotch social in the church parlors last Wednesday night. The program was composed entirely of Scottish subjects. The society will complete its imaginary trip around the world at its next monthly social, when it will wind up with a grand banquet, which will receive contributions from recipes of all the nations they have visited on their recent excursions.

Y. M. C. A.
The outlook for a Young Woman's Christian association in Grand Rapids is assuming quite a favorable aspect. The committee in charge of the enterprise held a meeting last Wednesday and will hold another next Wednesday. Mrs. W. Virginia Adams, who was delegate to Toledo to the national convention, thinks Grand Rapids is not quite holding her own upon this point in comparison to other cities.

Ida Van Cortlandt.
Ida Van Cortlandt, who is an honorary member, has recently sent to the company an engraved picture of herself, which adorns the parlor of the army.

The social and Schubert's fully satisfied the great expectation of all their friends and admirers, and also of the general public. The music, the drills, the marching and costumes were altogether lovely. The audiences were good and exceedingly appreciative.

The Spiritual association gave a calico dance in the Lincoln club rooms last Thursday night. The young women were attractive in their print gowns, which became them quite as well as the calico neckties off the same piece did their partners.

Oscar Allen has made up a world's fair party and has chartered the little lake vessel Bon Voyage. The party will visit the fair for one week, leaving on September 25. While there the Bon Voyage will be their home.

The Press club has authorized its president to invite the foreign news paper correspondents at the world's fair to come to Grand Rapids some time during the summer, and greet a right royal welcome.

A meeting of the Free Kindergarten Circle of King's Daughters, was held on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. C. Fitts, on Washington street.

The German Literary club held a pleasant session on last Monday evening at the home of Miss Harrington, No. 46 Charles street.

The Ladies' union of the Ames M. E. church held a social on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Bell on South Lonia street.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Jennie Dykema of the Lake street Holland school to Albert J. Zuiderveld.

Coming Events.
On Tuesday night the Wealthy Avenue Baptist church will give an "And So Forth" social in the church parlors. Much speculation is current regarding the nature of the entertainment, which has not yet been revealed. It is in charge of some of the male members and of course they can keep the secret, and no one disputes the curiosity of the women regarding the denouement.

The last meeting for the season of the Columbian lecture of Unity club will meet one week from tomorrow night at the home of Mrs. Walter Towne on Washington street. Quite a unique program is being prepared, as one of the young women of the club has accepted the challenge to go in costume and tell fortunes in a Polish manner. Other pleasing features will be introduced.

The announcement is out for the marriage on Tuesday, May 23, of Miss Amy B. Cooper to Charles William Wurzburg. The ceremonies will be at the home of the bride's parents in Syracuse, New York. Miss Cooper spent the winter in Grand Rapids and made many friends among musicians and others. Mr. Wurzburg is a member of the Schubert club.

The announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Sadie Littlefield of No. 171 Ransom street to Louis Cornelius of Chicago, formerly of this city. The wedding will take place June 7.

The wedding of Miss Annie Allen and Arnold Greenbaum will take place on Thursday, May 25. The bride and groom both live on Clinton street.

A party will be given on Friday night by Custer Woman's Relief corps at the residence of Mrs. Bronson, No. 85 McCord street.

Columbus tent, K. O. T. M., will give a party in its hall next Monday night. There will also be a musical program.

The Select Social club will give a grand ball on Tuesday evening, May 23, at North park pavilion.

The local lodges of Maecabees are preparing for a grand banquet, to be given about the first of June.

Hope and There.
Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Turner, whose home is in Grand Rapids, will be home on the 15th. They have been abroad in Paris for the last two or three years, and their friends are anxiously awaiting their return. Mr. Turner has had two pictures accepted by the French salon.

Don B. Austin of Philadelphia spent two days of the week with his father, mother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Austin and Mrs. Nellie Austin, at their home at No. 185 Barclay street. He returned to Philadelphia on Wednesday.

I and M. H. Frankford of New York have returned to that metropolis after a brief visit to the city. M. H. Frankford is connected with the New York Associated Press.

Miss Fred C. Derendorf and daughter, Miss Ada, are visiting Mrs. L. M. Whitfield. Mrs. Derendorf will soon go to join her husband in Los Angeles, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Salzman and son, from Flagstaff, Arizona, who spent a few days of the past week in town, are now taking in the world's fair in Chicago.

The friends of Dr. Alicia F. Jeffrey, formerly of St. Mark's hospital, will be glad to hear that her health is much improved. She is now in Denver.

Misses James G. MacIver, Charles R. Sligh and John Widdicombe left Thursday night for Chicago to finally arrange for the furniture exhibit.

Miss Helen M. Ramsdell of No. 511 East Fulton street has returned from Stanswood, where she went to attend the wedding of a friend.

Miss Maude Childs of No. 391 East Bridge street is entertaining for the summer her sister and two little children from Denver.

Mrs. F. Davis and daughter, who have for a few weeks been visiting in town, have returned to their home in Nebraska.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Foster and daughter and the Misses Kittie and Maude Foster visited a day or two in town.

Mr. and Mrs. James Connolly of Duluth are visiting their brother and sister, Flora and Austin Connolly, at the Warwick.

Miss Belle Hanson, who was in the city to attend the Levitt Frankford

wedding, has gone to her home in Greenville.

Mr. and Mrs. Rickman, formerly of No. 304 East Bridge street, have moved to their new home on Madison avenue.

Edwin Hancock, who visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hunter of Muskegon street last week, has returned to his home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Mead of Middleville, whose home was formerly in Grand Rapids, left for Oregon last Monday.

The Hon. and Mrs. H. H. Noble visited early in the week with Judge and Mrs. Hatch and Dr. and Mrs. Peterson.

Frank Austin, of the firm of Buckley A. Austin of Mendon, made a short visit to his friends here last Tuesday.

The Misses Anna and Maude Cheyne have gone to their home in Big Rapids after a pleasant stay in town.

Mrs. W. R. Shelby and daughter, who have been visiting in New York city, have returned to their home.

Samuel Weinstein of Philadelphia, after a few days' visit in Grand Rapids, has returned to the Quaker city.

The Rev. John Snyder of St. Louis is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Udell of No. 222 South Union street.

Mrs. L. D. Crossman has returned from a few days' visit to her brother, C. W. Crossman, of Chautauque.

Adolph Leitelt, who has been spending the winter in Florida, has returned much improved in health.

Mrs. M. LaRue returned to Jackson last Friday after a visit of ten days with Grand Rapids friends.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. M. S. Crosby left for a visit to friends in Rochester, New York.

Mrs. Louis Schmid of Ottawa street will visit friends in Grand Haven until the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sumner M. Welles and son left on Wednesday to visit a month in New York state.

C. F. Brown, superintendent of public schools in Traverse City, was in town a day or two.

Mrs. J. H. McDonald and daughter of Second street, visited friends in Jackson for a few days.

Dr. C. H. Baker of Bay City stopped for a few hours in town while on his way to Muskegon.

Miss Alice Brown of Barclay street has returned from Texas, where she has passed the winter.

Mrs. Edward W. Tinkham went to Chicago on Tuesday to visit friends and the world's fair.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Raymond and daughter Alice will spend the summer at Macatawa Park.

Miss Lena Cooper of Lansing is visiting her cousin, Miss Nellie Cooper, of Thomas street.

The Hon. George Parsons of Water-viet was in town Thursday on his way to Owosso.

Dr. Henneage Gibbs of Ann Arbor stopped in the city while on his way to Muskegon.

Mrs. W. H. Ball of Buffalo is at the Warwick, visiting her mother, Mrs. de Kraft.

Col. W. R. Shafter of the United States infantry visited the city last week.

Colon P. Lillie, who lives in Coopers-ville was in town for a day or two last week.

Signmund Tyroler of St. Louis has gone home after a few days' stay in town.

Mrs. J. M. Dudley returned from a few weeks' visit to Chicago and the west.

Mrs. E. E. Park of McConnell street went to Muskegon as a W. C. T. U. delegate.

Mrs. John D. Muir will visit her parents in Ann Arbor for another week.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Young have returned to Grand Rapids for the summer.

Mrs. H. D. Irish of the New Livingstone is entertaining Mrs. R. Burhans of Lonia.

E. G. Johnson of Luther and his daughter spent a few days in the city.

Mrs. W. H. Riechy and son of Belding visited Grand Rapids on Thursday.

Miss Lizzie C. Melis is with friends in Chicago, attending the exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Gay are attending the exposition in Chicago.

S. W. Blodgett of Coldwater spent a couple of days in town last week.

Paul P. Davis intends going to California in June to stay a few weeks.

Miss Lizzie Smith of East Fulton street is visiting in Caspott.

Arthur M. Morse of New York visited Grand Rapids on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Bonney of Lisbon were in the city on Thursday.

Mr. A. Sherman of Plainwell was visiting in town a day or two.

D. C. Oakes of Coopersville was in Grand Rapids last Thursday.

Judge J. Byron Jackson of Reed City was in the city on Thursday.

John R. Wood of Detroit was in town during a part of the week.

Miss Alfred Wolcott has gone to Ohio for a visit to old friends.

Dr. L. J. Elliott of Bay City visited the city on Thursday.

W. C. Winchester is away from the city for a few days.

Mrs. E. E. Park attended the W. C. T. U. in Muskegon.

C. C. Harley of Terrace avenue has gone to California.

Mrs. W. L. Fitzgibbons went to Saranac yesterday.

Mrs. N. K. Mills of Otsego was in town Tuesday.

Mrs. George Quimby has gone to Philadelphia.

Roland Lewis is in New York on a business trip.

Kanawha, Griffin of St. Louis is visiting E. L. LaRue.

Dr. C. E. Koon is at home after a visit to Hillsdale.

Mrs. W. B. Weston is visiting the world's fair.

Dr. James Gallup is in Owosso for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Adams are at Mt. Clemens.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hall, Mrs. W. P.

Hetherington and Mrs. W. S. Jackson, all of Belding, visited the city last Tuesday.

Mrs. M. J. Smiley is again in Chicago.

In the City.
Brenton C. Cutler, assistant secretary of the Young Men's Christian association, is attending the national convention at Indianapolis. Fred S. Russell is also in attendance at the convention, and went in company with Mr. Cutler.

Mrs. Gil R. Osmun and sons Philip and Russell have arrived in the city. Mr. Osmun will engage a residence and make his permanent home here.

Mrs. Lotta Bailey Ewing of Lansing is spending a week with her parents at their home on Wealthy avenue.

Chet Shepard of Philadelphia is visiting his mother, Mrs. Helen Shepard of No. 25 South Lafayette street.

Mrs. F. Bosch of No. 475 Jefferson avenue is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Christ of Chicago.

Mrs. W. H. Ball, daughter and maid of Buffalo, are the guests of Mrs. J. S. deKrafft at The Warwick.

Miss Jesse Sisson, who has been entertained by Miss Towne of Lansing, returned home last evening.

Mrs. George P. McMahon of No. 420 South Union street is visiting Mrs. J. Allen of Ludington.

Ernest Young and Jay Ross of Montrose, California, are visiting old friends in Grand Rapids.

Walter McBrien has returned from a six weeks' western trip, and is quartered at The Warwick.

Mrs. General Custer is visiting her cousin, Miss Richmond, of The Warwick.

Frank Hine went to Lowell last Thursday to visit his father, M. N. Hine.

Miss Amelia Morhard has returned home after a pleasant visit in Dor.

Mrs. F. L. Danforth is entertaining Mrs. Mary Hutchings of Rockford.

C. O. Hawley has gone to Santa Fe to remain for several months.

Mrs. Mary Hutchings of Rockford is visiting in town.

Personals.
William Widdicombe returned from Detroit to his home last Friday evening, the happy owner of a splendid solid silver tea set, as a trophy of the good will and esteem of the Michigan Wholesale Grocers' association. The set is one of the finest in the state.

The Rev. J. E. Roberts, pastor of a large unitarian church in Kansas City, Missouri, will soon be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Clay of No. 89 South Lafayette street. Mr. Roberts will be in attendance this week at the unitarian congress in Chicago.

Mrs. Lee Bowman Adams left for Chicago yesterday to attend the world's congress of representative women. She will remain during the entire session, and while there will be entertained by Dr. L. Wilcox of Irving Park.

Dr. Groner attended the medical convention at Muskegon and read a paper on the "Surgeon as an Expert Witness." Mrs. C. H. Johnson, D. M. Greene, Reuben Peterson and Dr. Wood also prepared papers.

Mrs. Martha Strickland, sister in law of ex-Superintendent Eastman, gave an address in Chicago last week before the world's congress of representative women on "Woman's Influence in Civil Law."

W. W. Chalmers went to Lansing on Thursday to attend the convention of superintendents of city schools in Michigan. He visited Olcott college on Friday and returned to the city yesterday.

Mrs. J. C. Ford of Grand Rapids presented a paper before the white ribbon convention in Muskegon. Her address was on "Work Among the Colored People," and was well received.

Mrs. Emily B. Ketchum went to Chicago yesterday to attend the women's congress. Mrs. Ketchum will give an address before the convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance union.

Miss Margaret Parsons, Mrs. Eliza Beth Englefield and Master Philip Englefield of No. 22 South Prospect street, left on Friday for Chicago, to attend the exposition.

Mrs. L. M. Boise of Grand Rapids gave an address on Wednesday before the state convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance union.

Miss Emma Field, secretary of the Associated Bureau of Charities, is located for the present in T. D. Gilbert's office in the Lynday block.

Miss Lena Belle Bridgman has been invited to assist in an entertainment to be given in Ludington on May 17 by the Ladies' Literary society.

Dr. Frances S. Hillyer gave a paper last Thursday—"Alcohol and Opium: Their Relation to the Disease," before the Central W. C. T. U.

Dr. Frances E. Rutherford attended the state convention of medical at Muskegon and gave one of the best papers of the convention.

Mrs. J. W. Tucker of No. 31 South Union street, was called last week to Windsor, Ohio, to attend the funeral of her father.

Mrs. James G. Clowes and daughter Maude of No. 321 Lyon street, gave an address before the temperance convention on "Physical Culture."

Charles W. Jones is recovering from his recent serious attack of pneumonia. Miss Quimby left for Kalamazoo last night to visit Miss Burnham.

J. C. Fitzgibbons is contemplating after a serious illness.

A large assortment of children's lace caps for 25, 35, 50 and 75 cents at Adams & Clark, 100 Monroe street.

See the great Geller, the aerial wonder, at Smith's opera house Sunday night.

DIAMONDS

We Carry First-Class Goods Only and Guarantee Satisfaction.

Wholesale and Retail
Jeweler, 56 Monroe St.

of the return of Miss Church, Mrs. F. W. Wurzburg's orchestra gave the right kind of music for the happy crowd to dance by.

Like the Scotch.
The young people of Park church held a Scotch social in the church parlors last Wednesday night. The program was composed entirely of Scottish subjects. The society will complete its imaginary trip around the world at its next monthly social, when it will wind up with a grand banquet, which will receive contributions from recipes of all the nations they have visited on their recent excursions.

Y. M. C. A.
The outlook for a Young Woman's Christian association in Grand Rapids is assuming quite a favorable aspect. The committee in charge of the enterprise held a meeting last Wednesday and will hold another next Wednesday. Mrs. W. Virginia Adams, who was delegate to Toledo to the national convention, thinks Grand Rapids is not quite holding her own upon this point in comparison to other cities.

Ida Van Cortlandt.
Ida Van Cortlandt, who is an honorary member, has recently sent to the company an engraved picture of herself, which adorns the parlor of the army.

The social and Schubert's fully satisfied the great expectation of all their friends and admirers, and also of the general public. The music, the drills, the marching and costumes were altogether lovely. The audiences were good and exceedingly appreciative.

The Spiritual association gave a calico dance in the Lincoln club rooms last Thursday night. The young women were attractive in their print gowns, which became them quite as well as the calico neckties off the same piece did their partners.

Oscar Allen has made up a world's fair party and has chartered the little lake vessel Bon Voyage. The party will visit the fair for one week, leaving on September 25. While there the Bon Voyage will be their home.

The Press club has authorized its president to invite the foreign news paper correspondents at the world's fair to come to Grand Rapids some time during the summer, and greet a right royal welcome.

A meeting of the Free Kindergarten Circle of King's Daughters, was held on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. C. Fitts, on Washington street.

The German Literary club held a pleasant session on last Monday evening at the home of Miss Harrington, No. 46 Charles street.

The Ladies' union of the Ames M. E. church held a social on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Bell on South Lonia street.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Jennie Dykema of the Lake street Holland school to Albert J. Zuiderveld.

Coming Events.
On Tuesday night the Wealthy Avenue Baptist church will give an "And So Forth" social in the church parlors. Much speculation is current regarding the nature of the entertainment, which has not yet been revealed. It is in charge of some of the male members and of course they can keep the secret, and no one disputes the curiosity of the women regarding the denouement.

The last meeting for the season of the Columbian lecture of Unity club will meet one week from tomorrow night at the home of Mrs. Walter Towne on Washington street. Quite a unique program is being prepared, as one of the young women of the club has accepted the challenge to go in costume and tell fortunes in a Polish manner. Other pleasing features will be introduced.

The announcement is out for the marriage on Tuesday, May 23, of Miss Amy B. Cooper to Charles William Wurzburg. The ceremonies will be at the home of the bride's parents in Syracuse, New York. Miss Cooper spent the winter in Grand Rapids and made many friends among musicians and others. Mr. Wurzburg is a member of the Schubert club.

The announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Sadie Littlefield of No. 171 Ransom street to Louis Cornelius of Chicago, formerly of this city. The wedding will take place June 7.

The wedding of Miss Annie Allen and Arnold Greenbaum will take place on Thursday, May 25. The bride and groom both live on Clinton street.

A party will be given on Friday night by Custer Woman's Relief corps at the residence of Mrs. Bronson, No. 85 McCord street.

Columbus tent, K. O. T. M., will give a party in its hall next Monday night. There will also be a musical program.

The Select Social club will give a grand ball on Tuesday evening, May 23, at North park pavilion.

The local lodges of Maecabees are preparing for a grand banquet, to be given about the first of June.

Hope and There.
Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Turner, whose home is in Grand Rapids, will be home on the 15th. They have been abroad in Paris for the last two or three years, and their friends are anxiously awaiting their return. Mr. Turner has had two pictures accepted by the French salon.

Don B. Austin of Philadelphia spent two days of the week with his father, mother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Austin and Mrs. Nellie Austin, at their home at No. 185 Barclay street. He returned to Philadelphia on Wednesday.

I and M. H. Frankford of New York have returned to that metropolis after a brief visit to the city. M. H. Frankford is connected with the New York Associated Press.

Miss Fred C. Derendorf and daughter, Miss Ada, are visiting Mrs. L. M. Whitfield. Mrs. Derendorf will soon go to join her husband in Los Angeles, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Salzman and son, from Flagstaff, Arizona, who spent a few days of the past week in town, are now taking in the world's fair in Chicago.

The friends of Dr. Alicia F. Jeffrey, formerly of St. Mark's hospital, will be glad to hear that her health is much improved. She is now in Denver.

Misses James G. MacIver, Charles R. Sligh and John Widdicombe left Thursday night for Chicago to finally arrange for the furniture exhibit.

Miss Helen M. Ramsdell of No. 511 East Fulton street has returned from Stanswood, where she went to attend the wedding of a friend.

Miss Maude Childs of No. 391 East Bridge street is entertaining for the summer her sister and two little children from Denver.

Mrs. F. Davis and daughter, who have for a few weeks been visiting in town, have returned to their home in Nebraska.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Foster and daughter and the Misses Kittie and Maude Foster visited a day or two in town.

Mr. and Mrs. James Connolly of Duluth are visiting their brother and sister, Flora and Austin Connolly, at the Warwick.

Miss Belle Hanson, who was in the city to attend the Levitt Frankford

wedding, has gone to her home in Greenville.

Mr. and Mrs. Rickman, formerly of No. 304 East Bridge street, have moved to their new home on Madison avenue.

Edwin Hancock, who visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hunter of Muskegon street last week, has returned to his home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Mead of Middleville, whose home was formerly in Grand Rapids, left for Oregon last Monday.

The Hon. and Mrs. H. H. Noble visited early in the week